

Music Traditions in Totalitarian Systems

Contents

PART I JOHN BLACKING MEMORIAL LECTURE

Giovanni Giuriati

Coping with Change. Changing Musical Traditions, Changing Ethnomusicology

PART II MUSIC TRADITIONS IN TOTALITARIAN SYSTEMS

Piotr Dahlig

Music and Totalitarianism. Artificial Enthusiasm

Britta Sweers

Interview Perspectives in Historical Reconstruction: Insights from Two German Totalitarian Systems

Austė Nakienė

Nostalgic Reminiscences: Urbanization, Music and Television of the 1960's

Anna Czekanowska

Music – Folklore and Politics. Three Life Experiences and Two Approaches

Serena Facci

Work and Songs under Italian Fascism

Tomasz Nowak

Polish Folk Music in the Period of Polish People's Republic – Look from Afar

Ayhan Erol

Controlling National Identity and Reshaping Public Taste: The Turkish State's Music Policies in the 1920s and 1930s

Cindy Bylander

Responses to Martial Law: Glimpses of Poland's Musical Life in the 1980s

Jacek Jackowski

Folk Religious Songs Sung during the Peregrination of Virgin Mary's Icon. An Example of Traditional Polish Peasant Piety in Communist Times

Shai Burstyn

Totalitarian Tendencies in Music Education: The Israeli Case

Lisa Cooper Vest

Educating Audiences, Educating Composers: The Polish Composers' Union and Upowszechnienie

Katarzyna Naliwajek-Mazurek

The Use of Polish Musical Tradition in the Nazi Propaganda